The Vine and the Branches

Description:

In her August 2017 LCWR address, President Mary Pellegrino CSJ shared that “a new, more complicated and complex narrative about religious life is emerging...a narrative of deepening communion.” Such a narrative does not focus narrowly on “human notions of progress and growth, “but expands its vision to embrace God’s “rhythmic patterns of fruitfulness.” Whatever your relationship to consecrated life, you will be invited during this gathering day to explore your own commitment to the writing of this narrative by reflecting on Jesus’ invitation to “bear the fruit” of loving communion described in his image of the vine and the branches.

Presenter

Clare A. D'Auria OSF, a Sister of St. Francis of Philadelphia, Aston PA, currently ministers as a staff member at the Franciscan Spiritual Center in Aston, Pennsylvania. For half of her fifty years in ministry, Clare has traveled throughout the United States and abroad, offering spiritual direction, directed and conference retreats, especially focused on topics in Franciscan spirituality. She also served on the staff of Franciscan Pilgrimage Programs for the past eight years, leading pilgrims through the holy sites in both Assisi and Rome. Her other ministerial experience has included congregational and provincial leadership, secondary and collegiate education and a variety of additional administrative roles.
